

READING COLORS Your WORLD.

MWR SUMMER READING PROGRAM 2021

Program Kickoff

Reading Colors Your World—and so do animals! Kick off a summer with The Creature Teacher. Meet a kangaroo and other amazing animals, and get signed up to start logging your reading.

Saturday, June 12, 10 am to noon

Professor Pop's Bubble Show

Brett the Bubble Man will create some of the biggest bubbles you've ever seen, then teach you how to make some big bubbles of your own. This program will be held outside the library—of course!

Wednesday, June 16, 10 am

Foam Cannon Party

It's a foam party on the library lawn! Bubbles, foam, beach balls, water squirters, inflatable toys, and music will make for one awesome dance party. Swim suits and towels encouraged! Monday, June 21, 10 am

Paint It, Plant It

Join us on the library lawn as we paint our own flower pots and then plant a pretty flower you can take home.

Wednesday, June 30, 10 am

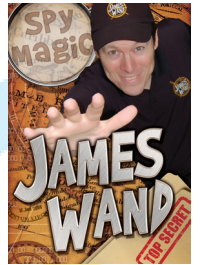

All About Animals

Miss Cindi will introduce the children to a variety of amazing animals, including mammals, reptiles, amphibians, and invertebrates. Wednesday, July 7, 10 am

James Wand Magic Show

This "super spy magician" uses secret codes, invisible writing, and a cool spy book to fascinate the children and teach them that the most important skills for a secret agent are reading and writing. Wednesday, July 14, 10 am

Rock Painting

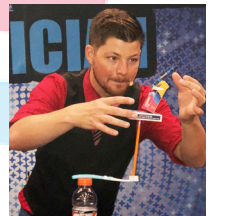

Reading colors your world and paint can color these rocks! Meet on the library lawn to paint rocks and have a snack.

Wednesday, July 21, 10 am

John O'Bryant Magic Show

John will take you on a first-class trip filled with magic, illusion, fun props, comedy, music, and lots of audience interaction.

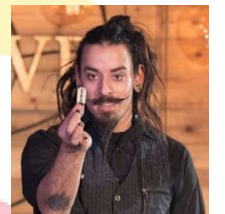

Monday, July 26, 10 am

Summer Reading Celebration

Wrap up your colorful summer of reading with activities, giveaways, and a crazy performance of magic and illusion from Josh Ayala.

Saturday, August 7, 10 am to noon

Storytime on the Lawn

Meet outside the library for a weekly storytime and snacks. Bring a blanket or chair! Tuesdays at 10 am, weather permitting

Read and Win!

You could win awards just for reading (or being read to). To register, use the QR code or visit
